

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

THIS FLAGRANT, PARTISAN, SELF-INTERESTED MISUSE OF TELEVISION "DOCUMENTARY" PROGRAMMING MUST BE STOPPED IMMEDIATELY, AND FORBIDDEN FOR THE FUTURE. DO NOT ALLOW THIS PROGRAM TO BE AIRED, ESPECIALLY ON THE BRINK OF AN ELECTION. The proposed program doesn't even pretend to be fair or balanced news. It amounts to one long, uninterrupted advertisement (AGAINST one of the candidates).

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something produced at "News Central" far away, it's more important that we see real people from our own communities and more substantive news about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
